

Frequently Asked Questions

Can I HOST a “ Living Under an Open Heaven” Small Group?

Everyone is encouraged to HOST this series. Hosting is easy and materials are FREE to those who commit to invite two or more people to join them for this powerful study.

How do I get the materials to host this series?

Material distribution dates and locations can be found online at the gototherock.com website.

What are the materials needed to host this series?

During the distribution dates, every host will be given a HOST STARTER KIT. This kit includes the DVD small group study, DVD Host Training, 5 workbooks, FAQ sheet.

Do all attendees get a workbook?

Yes. The host keeps the DVD series and gives each attendee a workbook of their own.

When can I start hosting my small group?

You could start hosting your group whenever you want. We recommend starting the week after you pick up your materials.

What if attendees bring their children? How do I accommodate children?

Be sure to discuss with those you have invited, whether or not you will be able to safely accommodate having children present. Each host should determine, along with the parents, the best plan for the children to be cared for properly. See the Host Training portion located on the DVD series.

How long should each session last?

Each session should have enough time to watch the 30-minute DVD, 15-20 minutes for discussion and time afterwards for fellowship (this depends on the host). With everything included, total time session is about an hour and a half.

How long is the series?

7 weeks.

Where can I host this series?

Anywhere that allows for 3 or more people to gather and watch the DVD Teaching and discuss the teaching.

How do I take attendance?

At some point of the series, we will be sending you a text regarding the attendance of your group. We kindly ask that you reply back to the text with the number of people in your group.

What if someone doesn't attend that week?

Invite them to come the next week.

What if someone wants to join after the series has already started?

Graciously invite them to join you.

Who do I contact if there is a situation occurs in my group that I can't resolve?

You can email us at rockgroupsupport@solidlives.com or call The Rock at 714.526.8233 and ask to talk to one of our members on the Rock Group Team.

What happens when the series is done?

Celebrate! We are grateful you have hosted this series! We encourage you to continue with your attendees and start a Rock Group of your own. Attend the next Rock Group Training and we will help you get started. Otherwise, encourage your attendees to join a Rock Group where solid lives are built.

- Please note that we will be sending you a weekly e-newsletter with tips and encouragement.
